Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 206 sets forth those costs recoverable by the prevailing party.

To The Defendant: The above named plaintiff(s) asks judgment against you for $ 5,000.00 together with costs upon the following claim (Civil fines must include citation of the statute or ordinance violated):

I had filed a dispute with equifax concerning a collections that was put on my credit bureau that should not be there, I asked them to remove it but they refused, I spoke to the collections agency and they refused also.

According to the collection agency there was a bill of 81.00 that quest diagnostics sent to a jefferson ave address that I have never lived at, then quest sent the bill to trans world systems for collections and they reported it to the credit bureau that I never paid it.

I have offered all of the proof to equifax of my address and my statements from my doctors office with my address on it but they refused to take it, I have spent hours on the phone and can not get this resolved, my credit score went from 804 to 760 because of this.

I am asking the court to have equifax remove this from my credit report and for damages due to my credit score dropping
